Adding book

- Anyone logged in (user or admin) can add new books.
- Multiple books cannot have the same title and description.

▼ Example if the form was submitted with incorrect data.

Bookname and description returns.

Fields marked with * are required.
Fields can contain only letters, numbers, spaces, and basic punctuation (.,!?'-).
Fields max lenth - 255 chars.

A book with that name and discription already exists. Check the library. If it doesn't exist, add a description that will distinguish this book from other books with the same name.

Add Book

Editing book

- The admin or the user who added the book can change it.
- You can change the title and description, add or remove a cover. Several authors can be the authors of a book.
- You can add an existing author (adding a new author on the site is not possible) and delete the author.
